American Dynamics Website Login

The page header is where you will find all of the key navigation links and other features such as website search, links to related websites and the login link which provides users with access to a variety of security professional resources. Access to these resources will depend on how each visitor is qualified when they register for the website.

The user registration link is directly beside the Login link and can be used for all new visitors that require extended access to product information. When visiting the website we recommend logging in each time to be certain you are viewing all content you are qualified to view.

Logging into the website only requires the registered visitors email address and password.

Forgot My Password Recovery Feature

If a user forgets their password, they can type in their email address and click the link labeled 'I forgot my password' and the password will be sent to the email address.

A screenshot of the login and registration form. The form is divided into two columns. The left column is titled 'Already a Member?' and contains fields for 'Email address' and 'Password', a checkbox for 'Keep me logged in', and a link labeled 'I forgot my password' which is circled in red. Below this column is a 'LOG IN' button. The right column is titled 'Not a Member yet?' and contains the text 'It's free and gets you access to:' followed by a bulleted list of benefits: 'Content from American Dynamics, Software House, Kantech and CEM Systems', 'Content not found in our public web sites', and 'Members-only downloads'. Below this column is a 'SIGN UP' button. At the bottom right of the form is a 'CLOSE' button.

To create a free account, which provides you with additional access throughout the website, please complete the on-line registration form below. Please make sure to fill out all the fields in the form. They are used to auto-populate the integrator information in the software license registration process.

The screenshot shows the 'Site Registration' page on the American Dynamics website. The page header includes the American Dynamics logo and the text 'From Tyco Security Products'. A navigation link for 'Related Websites' is visible. The main heading is 'Site Registration'. Below the heading is a paragraph of instructions: 'To create a free account, which provides you with additional access throughout the website, please complete the registration form below. Please use your company email address when registering because we assign certain website access based on approved email domains. Any email address will work for End User access. After submitting this form, a validation email will be sent to the email address you provided. Click the link within that email and a validation web page will open (just close it) and a second email will arrive with your password. After initial login please change your password. If you are experiencing any problems, please contact the Site Administrator.' The registration form consists of several fields: '* First Name', '* Last Name', '* Job title', '* Company', 'Address 1', 'Address 2', 'City', 'State/Province', 'Zip/Postal Code', 'Country' (a dropdown menu with 'Please Select' selected), 'Office Phone', and '* Email'. There are also two dropdown menus: '* Preferred Language' (set to 'English') and '* Affiliation' (set to 'Please Select'). A checkbox is present with the text 'I have read and agree to the Terms of Use and Privacy Policy of this website.' At the bottom of the form are two buttons: 'Submit' and 'Close'.

This page will automatically qualify users and provide access to security professional content based on the information provided in this form.
